

JOIN OUR BOARD!

CALL FOR BOARD DIRECTORS

VOLUNTEER POSITION: Directors At-Large (x3)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: ongoing until August 31, 2023

TERM: 3 years (renewable up to a second term)

TIME-COMMITMENT: Approx. 10 hours per month

LOCATION: Katarokwi-Kingston, Ontario

CALL FOR BOARD MEMBERS

Are you passionate about arts-based mentorship, experiential learning, and serving your community? Union Gallery is looking to fill up to 3 vacancies on our Board of Directors and we would love to hear from you! We are diving into some exciting work including building our next Strategic Plan, developing our membership program, and reimagining our fundraising model. We are keen to welcome new members who are equity champions, legal experts, and/or current Queen's University students in any field who are enthusiastic about our organization. Our Nominations Committee will prioritize equity-seeking applicants with capacity to contribute to our collaborative work in the areas mentioned above. More information about the commitment of the position below.

ABOUT UNION GALLERY

UG is a not-for-profit, student-centred, public contemporary art gallery at Queen's University. UG is a space centred in community and conversation, driven by play, curiosity, curation and research-creation. UG is the primary public gallery at Queen's dedicated to showcasing the range and excellence of students' artistic and curatorial practices. UG also supports professional artists to foster a diverse network of artistic production, presentation, and interpretation. UG is committed to supporting creative growth through merging technical and critical understandings of the arts, as well as a deeper understanding of how art can reflect the most important issues of our time. UG is centrally located on the first floor of Stauffer Library on Queen's main campus. All are welcome and admission is always free.

ABOUT OUR BOARD

Board members work collaboratively to provide oversight and direction to senior management. The Board is composed of artists, students, arts administrators, and other professionals who contribute experience in fundraising, financial management, human resources, equity work, administration, and technical expertise to our successful operation. Board members are expected to lend their experience and expertise by actively participating in quarterly Board meetings, serving on committees, presenting at the annual meeting, and participating in board retreats, as deemed necessary. UG has a minimum number of 3 and a maximum of 8 Directors on the Board. The term for each position is three years (renewable up to a second term).

APPLICATION

Interested individuals are invited to submit an expression of interest (max. 500 words), as well as a resume or CV. Submit your application to ugallery@queensu.ca with the subject line "UG Board Director Application" from now until August 31, 2023. All applicants will be contacted and applications will be reviewed by the Nomination Committee. Selected applicants will be invited for election at the Annual General Meeting this fall.

EQUITY STATEMENT

Union Gallery is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion in all aspects of our programming and operations. UG welcomes applications from qualified individuals of all sexualities, races, gender identities, socioeconomic statuses, and (dis)abilities. We strongly encourage applications from equity-seeking communities. UG recognizes that BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Colour), QPOC (Queer People of Colour) and 2SLGBTQIA+ (Two-Spirit, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and Questioning, Intersex, Asexual, +) are disproportionately underrepresented within institutional art spaces. Due to ongoing systemic barriers, UG prioritizes applicants who self-identify as BIPOC, QPOC, 2SLGBTQIA+. If you would like to, please indicate if you self-identify as a member of any equity-seeking groups in your application.

Learn more about Union Gallery at <https://uniongallery.queensu.ca/about.html>